La Salle fielded its first Track & Field team in 1963. For 58 years, no 4 X 100 Relay team had ever qualified to the state finals. The foursome pictured above is the first.

By qualifying to state, they became the 17th event which qualified to state for the Lancers. They go now in La Salle lore as the ones who gave the Lancers this historic feat. Thanks to this group of Orlando Wyatt, Tyreeq Sanders, GiBran Payne, and Koy Beasley, La Salle has now qualified to state in all 17 track and field events since 1963 when La Salle fielded its first Track & Field team.

Here is the list of the first Lancers to qualify to State in each event:

4 x 800 Relay, 1993, Dean Fulmer, Mike Thoman, Scott Sievering, Doug Bockenstette

Ode to Coach Toby Dirr

George “Toby” Dirr was a founding father of La Salle track and field. He was an assistant coach under Ron Rieman from 1963-1965 before he became the head coach for the two years I ran varsity in 1966 and 1967. Here are some of my memories of Coach Dirr during his two year stretch as my head coach.

My senior year an issue of my eligibility came up and I was crushed because I thought I would not be able to compete my senior year. Coach Dirr found a way to take care of it and I ended up being able to compete thanks to Coach Dirr. Toby would do anything to help you with any issue that came up.

We had a lot of dual and tri meets, and Toby spent his own money to buy ribbons for us when we got back to school the next day after the meet. He had blue, red, and white ribbons. I still have some of them today. Toby always had ideas to make an individual feel important.

My senior year, I got second at the district meet and got a silver medal which Toby took to Effler Jewelers in Mt. Healthy and had it engraved with my name, event and time. The next day at school teammates were wondering what it looked like and I was wearing it around my neck, so I showed them; and they laughed saying that the medal was my God. Actually, it was Toby I was honoring. There was nothing Toby wouldn't do for those who came into contact with him.

My junior year, we had some decent distance runners and both the varsity and reserves were second at the league cross country meet that year. I ran on some medley relays at the Harrison Relays and we got medals in two of them. The next practice, Toby came out the side door just as we were starting our warmup lap around the school and bellowed, “let's have some of you medal winners up front”. Toby was always trying to recognize and call attention to us when we achieved something.

After an opening warmup lap and calisthenics as a group, Toby would talk to the whole team before we broke up into event groups. Once he asked me what my time was in the 440 yard dash as a freshman, I said 69 seconds. I was running relay splits in the low 50s at that time. Toby thought the improvement was impressive, so he told George Ginn who was coaching the freshmen at the time about it and Coach Ginn told the freshmen how not to get discouraged, that you could get better with hard work using me as an example. Toby was always on the alert to call out guys on the team who could inspire teammates to do more to get better.

We would have a lot of dual and tri meets which we went to right after school. One time Toby set up a tri meet at Greenhills with Boone County at night. He organized a meal for us right after school. On the bus Toby said he didn't want to hear a peep out of us on the way to the meet. I never rode on a bus to a meet that was absolutely total silence. After the meet, Toby jumped on the bus and shouted, “Greenhills had you beat in the distance and Boone County had you beat in the sprints, but you won it on a team effort”. “Let's hear it for the Lancers” After the silence of the tomb on the way to the meet, we were whooping it up on the way back. Toby was a master at inspiring people to give their best effort.

Toby's sense of humor was legendary. You could never tell if he was serious or joking. At our inaugural meeting for the track season, someone asked Toby about the straightaway cinder track that was installed on the west side of the field. Toby claimed that we had the GCL championships for that season. Every year, they were held at Roger Bacon on their cinder track. We were stunned and didn't realize at first Toby was kidding. Then that contagious smile lit up his face and we knew he was at his usual best as a jokester.

Toby Dirr may have left us to earn his just reward, but his legacy will never die. His footsteps will continue to echo in our hearts in the years ahead as we treasure the memories of the time we were privileged to be with him.

Ode to Coach Frank Russo

It was the summer of 1983 and Frank Russo was interviewing at La Salle high school for the position of head cross country coach. A recent graduate of Ohio State University, he had sent out feelers to schools about teaching/coaching and La Salle had called him in for an interview. The interview seemed to go well but Frank was given the standard answer about contacting him later with a decision. Frank proceeded to the parking lot. The powers that be at La Salle realized that a candidate like Russo didn't come along every day and decided based on his background to make a move before someone else could. Russo had made the top seven in cross country at Ohio State all four years he was there and was elected captain of the team his senior year. In 1978, he had finished fourth at the Ohio high school state championships leading the Colerain team to its first ever state title in any sport. The decision had been made and Frank Russo would drive what he would later refer to as the Big Red Express. The AD at the time, Bob Kruger, would refer to Frank as the Knute Rockne of Track and Field. Russo would become head track & field coach in 1985 and La Salle was on its way to becoming a city, state, and even national power in both cross country and track and field.

To show the enormity of what Coach Russo accomplished, you have to look at what La Salle Track & Field was when he arrived on the scene. Here are all the La Salle coaches, their number of years as head coach and their winning percentages: Ron Rieman (3), 32%, George Dirr (2), 6%, David Fairchild (2), 41%, Norbert Buller (3), 43%, Ken Barlag (8), 61%, Mike Page (3), 65%, Dan Flynn (2), 49%, FRANK RUSSO (34), 87%.

The success La Salle achieved under Russo's guidance was not only unimaginable in La Salle's history but unparalleled in league history. After the GCLS was formed in 1992, the mighty Lancers won more titles than all the other schools combined. Before Russo, seven coaches won one GCL championship, with Russo they won twenty. Before Russo there were no district, city, regional, or state titles while Russo would lead them to eighteen district wins, twelve city titles, three regional championships, one state runner-up and two state championships in track and field. In cross country before Russo, La Salle had not won a single championship. Under Russo's leadership they won eight league and city titles, eleven district championships, seven regional titles, five state runner-ups, and two state championships.

Now that Frank Russo has moved on to other challenges, it is long overdue to memorialize everything he did at La Salle high school in both cross country and track and field. He will go down as the greatest coach ever at La Salle in any sport. In his last year at La Salle, he was justifiably inducted into the State Hall of Fame and goes down for what he accomplished at La Salle as one of the greatest coaches not only in the history of La Salle but also the entire state of Ohio.

Nike Web Nationals-Nike Track Nationals

In 2008, La Salle participated in the Nike Web Nationals, an event designed to compare teams from around the United States. The Lancers finished second in the Midwest Regional behind Warren Central and tenth in the country in the National Ranking won by Desert Vista, Arizona. In 2010, Nike decided to take the eight regional winners and four at-large teams to Portland to compete for a national title. La Salle finished 27th in the National rankings in 2010 with 7704 points.

How did it work? Well, each team's best mark in the following events was accepted: 100m, 400m, 100/110m hurdles, mile/1500/1600, 2 mile/3000m/3200m, pole vault, high jump, long jump, shot put, and discus throw. Each mark was tallied for an overall point total, which is comparable to any team across the country.

Was it "like a decathlon?" Only in the sense that there are 10 events and a rough maximum of 1,000 points per event, but the calculation of values is unique to NWN.

Decathlon scoring is based on a theoretical calculation of degree of effort to achieve different performance levels. The NWN point table is built in reference to the national record and the DyeStat Elite cutoff for an event. The national record at the start of NWN (2005) is given a value of 1,000 points. The Dy Stat Elite cutoff in 2005 is assigned a value of 700. All other performances are interpolated by calculating the value of an inch or a second in the 300 point difference between the national record and the DyeStat Elite cutoff. An average performance tends to settle in the 400-500 point range, but it varies somewhat for different events. The 1000-point and 700-point performance levels are not changed from the initial values due to the value of having year-to-year comparisons. Thus, if someone beats the national record that existed in 2005, they would get more than 1,000 points.
